

the free system had been adopted; but the cramped state of the revenue was thought sufficient excuse. With a reviving trade, and consequent increase in the correspondence of the country, the Post Office Department can afford to confer the same boon upon publishers and newspaper readers as was granted

neeking, the people have no right to expect their papers carried for nothing, but it is a liberal and not unwise policy on the part of the Government to grant every reasonable facility for the spread of newspapers, as they comprise almost all the native literature we can boast of, while the publisher pays sufficiently heavy

On the paper was printed:
 "The United States Gazette has much pleasure in stating that the noble-hearted Lady Franklin has presented the steamer Fox to Captain McClintock, her late gallant and successful commander, as a reward for his meritorious services."

ship retired to rest in her usual health on Thursday night, and was found dead in her bed the next morning. Lady Peel has thus survived her illustrious husband about nine years, and must at least have attained the number of years which the inspired record allots to hu-

EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY.—We are glad to see that the contest between Lord Brougham and the Duke of Buccleuch, for the Chancellorship of the University of Edinburgh, has been decided in favour of the former. It would have been a stigma upon Edinburgh, and in fact upon Scotland, had it been otherwise.

this part of India is happily large enough to prove that, whatever may be the native instinct for birth and fortune, the educated class in that country has a still more acute sympathy with genius and brains.

day, after having hummed the Bible for a couple of hours,—"Pray tell me what the people think of me as a preacher?" "Think," replied the clerk,¹⁰ "why then—35 that an awfully good blacksmith was lost to the community when you took to the pulpit." The

HAPPY TERMINATION OF A LAW SUIT.—In a village near Yvetot some time back, says the Ardle Courthouse, a case was brought before the juge de paix, and just as that functionary had given notice that he was about to begin the proceedings, the defendant pretty young female entered. "On seeing me," said the plaintiff rose and said, "Mademoiselle—I have not the courage to plead against you, and am sorry to have given you the trouble to come here. I abandon the case and will pay all the costs! Deign to accept my arm!" The proposition was accepted. The acquain-

out of the interference of the late Secretary of the Board of Works. Mr. Morrison is a clear headed and practical man, and no doubt his report will be both correct and satisfactory. Next session, we confidently hope, a good round sum will be placed on the estimates for further improvements on this important river.

Mr. Morrison is a lucky fellow, and is well provided for. The present Government, to say the worst of them, always provide well for their newspaper friends.

REVISED STATUTES.—We find the following in the Spectator of yesterday. The Province: The work of consolidation has now been finished, and a proclamation was issued on Tuesday, announcing that the consolidated statutes of Canada, and the consolidated statutes of Upper Canada, become law on the 5th December. Those of Lower Canada will be adopted next session. As far as

A COLD WINTER PREDICTED.—About 100 days ago, a tremendous drove of grey squirrels

Thousands of them were afterwards found dead upon the ground. They crossed the Mississippi at that point, and worked their way down the river until on Wednesday they reached Cape Girardeau, crossing at that point.

The citizens turned out en masse and killed them by hundreds. Every tree and bush in that vicinity was swarmed with them until night, when they all disappeared, and have not been heard of since. Their route was marked up by a devastating storm. Trees were gnarled and fields destroyed.
